Beer & Pub News

As is probably widely known by now, Buxton Brewery has run into financial problems for all the usual reasons: "low consumer confidence, lack of business support from the government and post COVID difficulties". Early in May, the brewery posted a notice of intention to appoint administrators, via Primas Law - this will protect the brewer and Pubco from creditor action for a period of around ten days. An article dated 20th May in The Grocer, reported that Buxton Brewery has now been sold in a pre-pack administration deal to a company known as "Happy Place Investors" which, according to insolvency firm Interpath Advisory, would safeguard the future of the brewery and the group's taprooms and bars in Buxton and the employment of all circa 50 members of staff.

As for the Buxton Brewery outlets, the Tap Room & Cellar Bar (next door) are both open together with a new Trackside@Buxton Brewery bar next to the brewery on Staden Lane and which (according to WhatPub) is open every day from 12.00 noon. The Treacle Tap in Macclesfield closed its doors towards the end of April.

And another brewery closes...

The Wiggly Monkey Brewery, based just outside Bicester, Oxfordshire, posted the following (edited) message on Facebook dated 1st May...

"It is with immense sadness that we must call time on the Wiggly Monkey Brewery. We would like to thank all of our customers, friends, and followers for the support over the last six years. It has been an incredible journey, with amazing highs, and our fair share of lows. Unfortunately, despite all the incredible efforts of our team, we cannot keep the pedal flat [motoring reference, apparently - Ed] for any longer. The brewing industry and the wider hospitality sector has faced unprecedented cost increases and significant disruption over the last few years, that have challenged the brewery's viability going forwards".

Over the Early May Bank Holiday (3rd-5th May), the Pig & Pump in Chesterfield hosted a n Ashover Brewery tap takeover which featured 9 of their beers. Perhaps it's a Pig & Pump Bank Holiday "thing" as they had a Vocation tap takeover on the Late May Bank Holiday (24th-26th May) which offered 10 cask and 3 craft keg beers from the brewery. Apologies for the late announcement but keep an eye on Facebook leading up to the August Bank Holiday week-end (23rd-25th August) as there may be another?

While travelling from Chesterfield to Sheffield on the X17 bus, I noticed the Red Lion at Whittington Moor is up for sale. I think this is the furthest south pub of the Old Mill brewery of Snaith. Shame! Bald Eagle.

The pub sale is being handled by Fleurets and the asking price is £195k +VAT. According to the Fleurets web-site, it has now been sold

STC. It is described as a "community pub" but was unable to recover to pre-COVID trading levels.

According to a couple of RuRADians, the Thorn Tree in Ripley closed for a major refurbishment on 4th May and is due to re-open mid-June. The pub, formerly owned by the Pub People Group, is now operated by the Valient Pub Co. This company, based in Birmingham, was only established in 2021 and the pubs under their care are widely distributed [as far as I can tell - Ed] - eg. in Bala, Dorchester, Kirkby Stephen and Bridgnorth amongst other locations.

According to a reliable source, the Bird Hide micro-pub in Attenborough is up for sale. No further details can be found via the magic that is the internet.

The lease of the Crossroads Tavern in Alfreton is up for sale. A Facebook post dated 23rd May said that the business was being sold "reluctantly due to new ventures" and that interested parties should call 07909 371458.

Andrew Brett at the Red Lion in Ripley will be hosting a Featured Brewery event - showcasing Oakham Ales - in June, from Monday 24th to Sunday 30th. Andrew submitted the following statement to "In The Sticks"...

"We will be giving over all of our Guest Ale lines for this event. I have so far pre-ordered 9 of the cask aged ales - there will hopefully be 12-15 in total - that will be featured during the week-long Oakham Ales showcase. These will obviously include Citra, Inferno, Green Devil etc. but will also include a brand new seasonal ale called Superdelic".

For those readers who have not seen the story, Carlsberg-Marston's announced at the beginning of the year that the four remaining Union Sets in their Burton-on-Trent brewery were being retired. These comprise a set of 150 gallon wooden barrels in which Marston's Pedigree was brewed (although blended with brews from stainless steel fermenters in the recent past). One of these sets has now been acquired by Thornbridge Brewery based outside Bakewell, and they intend to use it to brew some of their flagship ales, starting with Jaipur.

Beer Festivals

The Belper Goes Green Eco, Community & Arts Festival returns on 7th-10th June at the Belper Meadows Cricket Club. Over 75 eco-stalls are promised along with live music, talks, workshops and family activities. Amber Valley CAMRA are running the Real Ale & Cider Tent offering 50 LocAles sourced within 20-25 miles of Belper. A full list of the ales and ciders can be found on the Belper Goes Green Facebook page dated 17th May. The festival kicks off at 5.00 pm on Friday 7th and then opens at 12.00 noon on both the Saturday and Sunday. Tickets can be bought in advance via the Transition Belper web-site (www.transitionbelper.org) for £5.50 for the week-end. No charge for under 18s, CAMRA Members & Transition Belper Members. Please note that tokens will not be used this year - payment is by cash and contactless. Also, drinks will only be served in polycarbonate "glasses" which can be brought to the site or hired for £3.00.

Local beer festivals to remember in June include the Dead Poets Cask Ale & Cider festival (12th-16th) plus two more over the week-end of 27th to 30th June: Angels Micro Pub has a North vs South festival with 12+ beers from the north and south of England, and just up the road in Bargate, the White Hart will have 20+ beers on offer (no further details are available). At the latter, there will be pop-up food in the car park from El Capo Pizzas (28th) and Pablo's Burgers (29th) plus a Quiz Night on the 30th.

The Bunny Hop in Langley Mill is hosting its BunnyFest Music Festival on Saturday 22nd June which coincides with the pub's 8th birthday. All proceeds from the event will go to Nottingham QMC Wards E38 & E39 for children (0-18 years) with terminal illnesses.

Just a quick mention of the Bromsgrove Beer Festival (27th-29th June) which the Didler regularly attends. He had this to say about the festival in 2022...

"What a fantastic beer festival and it never disappoints. The cask cooling system makes all the difference and every beer was perfect. This has to be one of the best festivals in the country and the quality outstanding".

It is always nice to report on a pub opening or re-opening, instead of closing. So the Jug & Glass in Lea has re-opened after a period of closure, and due to the efforts of ex-Derby County footballer Jake Buxton, who I believe is now involved with the Derby County academy. He lives in the village and has bought the pub, much to the delight of the locals, as they now have a pub again. Jake plans to put in a manager to run the pub, which I believe is Dave & Lorraine Mountford from the Boat in Cromford. The current opening hours at the moment are lunch time till 11.00 pm from Thursday till Sunday, and they are looking to add Wednesday soon. Beer is limited at the moment to 3 real ales: Pedigree as Marston's helped sort the cellar out, Hobgoblin or similar, and a rotating guest beer as the 3rd. The pub itself seems more loved regarding the decor and seating. It will continue to be improved over the coming months, and hopefully open across the week in time. There is also a good food menu on offer. The pub can be reached on public transport by catching the 141 Matlock bus from Ripley, which drops you very close to the pub. Many thanks to Steve from Lea for all the information. Charisma Bypass.

According to Derbyshire Live (6th May), Heineken Star Pubs & Bars are promising to invest £650k in a revamp of the Punchbowl, West Hallam subject to the recruitment of a licensee. The refurbishment would extend the trading space of the pub to provide 130 covers and add a new kitchen and accessible toilets.

As an addendum to this story, the BBC reported on 6th May that Heineken will re-open 62 recently closed pubs and invest £39m in refurbishing hundreds of sites across the UK. The company said the cash injection into its Star Pubs & Bars chain will create more than 1,000 new jobs.

Derbyshire Live (24th May) reported that the Needlemakers Arms on Kensington Street, Ilkeston has been sold and that the pub would close on the following day (25th May). The pub was owned by Heineken Star Pubs & Bars but the name of the buyer wasn't revealed.

The Daily Telegraph (18th May) reported that Ben Cheshire, landlord at the Coronation pub in Southville, has introduced a two-tier pricing system whereby drinks are up to 20% more expensive for customers who order in-person at the bar rather than via a smartphone app using a QR code. Mr Cheshire said that the digital service reduced the burden on his staff and added...

"I've found not having to constantly be serving people way better for my mental health. Bar work can be really mentally tiring. It takes the stress away rather than having to constantly interact with different people for eight hours straight". [Yeah well, good luck with that, mate - Ed].

National CAMRA AGM 2024

It's not exactly within the remit of the "In The Sticks" newsletter but readers may be interested in some of the 9 motions that were discussed at the 2024 CAMRA AGM held in Dundee from the 26th to 28th April...

MOTION 3: This Conference agrees that the campaign for full pints (per Motions 9 and 20 in 1992 and Motion 2b in 1998) has been, by any metric, a failure. It instructs the National Executive to remove all references to campaigning for full pints from policy documents and instructs the National Executive to inform Beer Festival Organisers that all beer festivals should be allowed to revert to 20 and 10 ounce glasses (or their 1/3 and 2/3 pint equivalents) with effect from 1 January 25.

The motion was Defeated

MOTION 5: This Conference agrees that oversized lined glasses should be available to customers on request for pubs and clubs to be entered into the Good Beer Guide.

The motion was Defeated

MOTION 6: This Conference instructs the National Executive to ensure that the intentions of the CAMRA policy on ingredients labelling are enacted. Brewers, pubs and clubs that do not indicate that a beer on sale is intended to be cloudy should be ineligible for entry in the Good Beer Guide and such beers excluded from sale at CAMRA beer festivals.

The motion was Remitted (ie. no vote was taken)

MOTION 7: This Conference agrees there are too many pubs in the Good Beer Guide and instructs the National Executive to implement the exact wording of Motion 9 passed in 2002 and reduce the number of entries to no more than 4,000 for the 2026 edition.

The motion was Defeated

MOTION 8: This Conference instructs the National Executive to implement a comprehensive review of the Good Beer Guide. The review shall report to Conference in 2025 to ensure all relevant recommendations are implemented for the 2027 or 2028 edition, whichever is the more practicable.

The motion was Carried

Out & About

Just one article this month from June & Gary from Ilkeston who visited the Isle of Wight in April.

Isle of Wight, April 2024

Having travelled to the Isle of Wight on an Alpha Coaches trip, we stayed at the Shanklin Hotel in Shanklin, a lovely place with lots of thatched roofs, but there was no cask ale at the hotel. The bottles were acceptable at £4.80 each from Island Brewery IOW: Wight Gold (4.0%), Yachtsman's Ale (4.2%) and Wight Night (4.5%) - all were tried. These coach tours include excursions but on our free day we caught the local bus to Newport where our first stop was the JDW Man In The Moon. This is a lovely huge place that was once a Methodist Chapel where you can even sit up in the altar space. The Goddards Fuggle-Dee-Dum (4.8%) and Milestone Pacific Islander (5.1%) were tried with us preferring the Goddards.

We then moved on to the Newport Ale House where we sampled Sharp's Sea Fury (5.1%), Arundel Sussex IPA (4.5%) and Woodforde's Pure Gold (4.5%) - all served by gravity straight from the cask, all very nice and all at £4.60 a pint. Next, to the Bargeman's Rest at the side of the river - very much a foody pub with lots of nautical memorabilia. Goddards Wight Squirrel (4.3%) and Ringwood Boondoggle (4.2%) were both tried here with the Goddards preferred. £4.90 a pint with Forty Niner and Best Bitter, both from Ringwood, also available.

BLACK BULLS HEAD

2 Kilburn Lane, Openwoodgate
Belper, Derbyshire

We then caught another bus to Ventnor and called at the Crab & Lobster where Island Brewery IOW Nipper Bitter (3.8%) and White Knuckle Pale Ale (4.2%) were sampled, the latter being preferred. Also on were Brains Rev James and TT Landlord. We then moved on to the Volunteer which is very much a locals pub with 4 ales available: Goddards South Island (4.2%) and Fuggle-Dee-Dum (4.8%) plus Butcombe Original and St Austell Proper Job also on. Here was a proper landlord wearing a shirt and tie and even an Arkwrights cash till which you don't often see now.

We were then taken on the IOW railway and spent a short time in Ryde where we found the S. Fowler & Co Wetherspoons. Beers here were Butcombe Gold, Evan Evans WPA, Sambrook's Junction, Hook Norton Old Hookey, Hobgoblin Gold and Milestone Pacific Islander. Both the Sambrook's and Evan Evans were tried and found to be in good nick.

Fantastic Outdoor Garden

Back into Shanklin we called into the Fishermans Rest, a small pub with 3 sticks serving but only 2 in use, both from the local Yates' brewery: Islander (4.0%) and Fisherman's Brew (4.0%), the latter preferred even at £5.25 a pint! The pub had flagstone flooring but again was very foody. As was the Steamer Inn with 4 sticks but only 2 in use: Goddards ESB and Ringwood Forty Niner - £5.00 a pint and we both agreed that the Goddards was bottom of the barrel? We made our way up to the old town against my better judgement as it was to a GK pub called the Crab which is an impossibly pretty pub with a thatched roof and bare floorboards. It sold GK IPA & Abbot, and Spring Break (4.4%) which was acceptable and was brewed by Future Brewers but it was a shame that we had to ask twice for our ales to be topped up. Close by was the Village Inn which was offering 3 sticks, all of which were tried: Laine Brew Co Brit-Hop (4.0%) Butcombe Bitter (4.0%) and T T Boltmaker (4.1%) which we preferred. £5.20 a pint but it was another pub mostly catering for diners, with tiffany lights and just too many tables for food.

Our last pub was King Harry's Bar, a nice pub with small rooms and a real fire plus no food sold. I had St Austell Proper Job while Gary had the Fullers ESB which was the best of the two at £5.25 a pint. Also available was St Austell Tribute. The pub also had a nice rear beer garden. June and Gary, Ilkeston.
